Modern Slavery Policy

1. Introduction

Modern slavery is a crime and a violation of fundamental human rights. It takes various forms, such as slavery, servitude, forced and compulsory labour and human trafficking, all of which have in common the deprivation of a person's liberty by another in order to exploit them for personal or commercial gain.

We have a zero-tolerance approach to modern slavery and we are committed to acting ethically and with integrity in all our business dealings and relationships, and to implement and enforce effective systems and controls to ensure modern slavery is not taking place anywhere in our own business or our supply chain.

We are also committed to ensuring there is transparency in our own business and in our approach to tackling modern slavery throughout our supply chain. We expect the same high standards from all of our contractors, suppliers and other business partners. As part of our contracting processes, we include specific prohibitions against the use of forced, compulsory or trafficked labour, or anyone held in slavery or servitude, and we expect our suppliers will hold their own suppliers to the same high standards.

This Policy applies to all persons working for us or on our behalf in any capacity, including employees at all levels, directors, officers, agency workers, seconded workers, agents, contractors, external consultants, third-party representatives and business partners.

2. Responsibility for the Policy

Qualified Supervisors have overall responsibility for ensuring this Policy complies with our legal and ethical obligations, and that all those under our control comply with it.

The Managing Director has primary and day-to-day responsibility for implementing this Policy, monitoring its use and effectiveness, dealing with any queries about it, and auditing internal control systems and procedures to ensure they are effective in countering modern slavery. Management at all levels are responsible for ensuring those reporting to them understand and comply with this Policy and are given any required training.

3. Compliance with the Policy

Employees must read, understand and comply with this Policy.

The prevention, detection and reporting of modern slavery in any part of our business or supply chain is the responsibility of all those working for us or under our control. Staff are required to avoid any activity that might lead to, or suggest, a breach of this Policy.

Staff must notify their manager as soon as possible if they believe or suspect that a conflict with this Policy has occurred or may occur in the future. Staff are encouraged to raise concerns about any issue of suspicion of modern slavery in any parts of the business or the supply chains of any supplier tier at the earliest possible stage.

If staff believe or suspect a breach of this Policy has occurred or that it may occur they must notify their manager, or report it in accordance with Goom Electrical Ltd's Whistleblowing Policy (POL 37), as soon as possible.

If staff are unsure about whether a particular act, the treatment of workers more generally, or their working conditions within any tier of our supply chain constitutes any of the various forms of modern slavery, this should be raised with their manager. We aim to encourage openness and will support anyone who raises genuine concerns in good faith under this Policy, even if they turn out to be mistaken.

We are committed to ensuring no one suffers any detrimental treatment as a result of reporting in good faith their suspicion that modern slavery of whatever form is or may be taking place in any part of our own business or in any part of our supply chain.

If staff believe they have suffered any such treatment, they should inform their manager immediately.

4. Communication and Awareness of the Policy

Training on this Policy, and on the risk our business faces from modern slavery in its supply chain will be given where needed. Our zero tolerance approach to modern slavery must be communicated to all suppliers, contractors and business partners at the outset of our relationship with them, and reinforced as appropriate thereafter.

5. Breaches of the Policy

Any employee who breaches this Policy will face disciplinary action, which could result in dismissal for misconduct/gross misconduct. We may terminate our relationship with individuals and organisations working on our behalf if they breach this Policy.
